The Northwest Passage---Commodore Mc Clure's Dispatches.

The London Times, of the 8th ult., publishes the dispatches from Com. McClure to the British Admiralty, relative to the discovery of the Northwest Passage, to which cursory reference was made by the previous steamer. These dispatches are very numerous and voluminous. We present below their most interesting and important features. Com. McClure has managed to force his ship, the Investigator, far enough through the icy mountains of Behring's Straits, to a point from which she could communicate with others which had entered the Arctic seas by the Atlantic passage. It is well to note this fact particularly—the impression having been created that the Investigator had sailed from ocean to ocean, which is not the case just yet—but he has no doubt that he will be able to make a passage to England now, through Davis' Straits. Practically, therefore, he is entitled to the credit of having accomplished the voyage from ocean to ocean.

The Investigator, while forcing her way through Barrow's Straits (Sept. 24th, 1852), from the west, was run ashore, the Commodore making his winter-quarters there—in the Bay of Mercy. And it is from that point, be it remembered, that he now writes. He is sanguine of returning home to England, by way of Baffin's Bay, in 1854.

Two remarkable discoveries are mentioned in Com. McClure's Journal, viz: some smoking hillocks, and a petrified forest. He also states that during his intercourse with the natives, he only once met with any hostile demonstrations. This occurred at Port Warren, near the Mackenzie, where, on attempting to land, two natives with threatening gestures waved them off. It was not without much difficulty that they were pacified, and then they related that all their tribe but the chief and his sick son had fled on seeing the ship, alleging as a reason that they feared the ship had come to revenge the death of a white man they had murdered some time ago. They, through the interpreter, related that some white men had come there in a boat, and that they built themselves a house and lived there; at last the natives murdered one, and the others escaped, they knew not where, but the murdered man was buried in a spot they pointed out. A thick fog coming on prevented Capt. McC. from examining this locality, which is much regretted, as here is the probable position where a boat party endeavoring to return by the Mackenzie would have encamped.

Meeting of Com. McClure and Lieut. Pim.

The first meeting of Lieut. Bedford Pim with the party from the Investigator, is thus described in a private letter from Capt. Kellett, C. B., dated "Her Majesty's ship Resolute, Melville Island, April 19th, 1853."

"This is really a red letter day in our voyage, and shall be kept as a holiday by our heirs and successors for ever. At nine o'clock of this day our lookout man had made the signal for a party coming in from westward; all went out to meet them and assist them in. A second party was then seen.—Dr. Domville was the first person I met. I cannot describe my feelings when he told me that Captain McClure was among the next party. I was not long in reaching him, and giving him many hearty shakes—no purer were ever given by two men in this world. McClure looks well, but is very hungry. His description of Pim's making the Harbor of Mercy, would have been a fine subject for the pen of Captain Maryatt, were he alive.

"McClure and his first lieutenant were walking on the floe. Seeing a person coming very fast towards them, they supposed he was chased by a bear, or had seen a bear.—Walked towards him; on getting onwards a hundred yards, they could see by the proportions that he was not one of them. Pim began to screech and throw up his hands (his face was as black as my hat;) this brought the captain and lieutenant to a stand, as they could not hear sufficiently to make out his language.

"At length Pim reached the party, quite beside himself, and stammered out, on McClure asking him, 'Who are you, and where do you come from?' 'Lieutenant Pim, Herald, Captain Kellett.' This was the more inexplicable to McClure, as I was the last person he shook hands with in Behring's straits. He at last found that this solitary stranger was a true Englishman—an angel of light; he says; 'He soon was seen from the ship; they had only one hatchway open, and the crew were fairly jammed in their endeaver to get up. The sick jumped out of their hammocks, and the crew forgot their despondency; in fact all was changed on board the Investigator.'"

The Last Hope Gone!

Commander McClure can send us no news of Sir John Franklin's expedition. The opinion of the most distinguished and Polar worthies now is, that Sir John Franklin, after leaving the winter quarters where his traces were found, proceeded to carry out the Admiralty instructions, steering first westerly for Melville Island, and then shaping a course—as far as the configuration of the scene of action permitted—southerly and westerly for Behring's Straits. It is supposed that, in endeavoring to carry this purpose into effect, the Erebus and Terror were hopelessly frozen up or destroyed years ago in some of the multitudinous channels which are known or supposed to exist there.

This we find to be the opinion of the principal Arctic navigators, and it comes before us recommended by its extreme probability. Certainly, Sir John Franklin was not an officer to leave unattempted any duty which he had been ordered to perform, and therefore it is a probable that he would not have deviated from the letter of his instructions, without excellent cause; had he so deviated, it is all but certain that he would have left behind him at Beechy Island, or elsewhere, some record of his changed intention.

If, then, Commander McClure has been unable to find any trace of the lost expedition between Behring's Straits and the point from which he wrote his dispatches, it would appear that our best chance has been exhausted. The public have a right to expect that we have now seen the last of Arctic expeditions. Even Sir John Barrow, had he yet been alive, would now have entreated the Admiralty to hold their hands.—London Times.

Tenth " —W. D. BACON, of Waukesha.

For the Assembly,
First Ward—R. N. AUSTIN.
Second Ward—I. A. LAPHAM.
Fourth Ward—S. M. BOOTH.
Fifth Ward—WM. A. HAWKINS.

ELECTION, - - - - TUESDAY, NOV. 8.

Where to Vote.

The Polls of Election will be open from 9 o'clock A. M. until sunset, and will be held at the following places:

First Ward—Corner of Market and Oneida sts.
Second Ward—At the Mansion House.
Third Ward—At the Louisiana Hotel.
Fourth Ward—At the Menomonee Hotel.
Fifth Ward—At the Rochester House.

How to Vote.

BALLOTS.—The names of all persons voted for, whether for State, Legislative or County Officers, must be on ONE TICKET.

LIQUOR LAW.—A separate box must be provided for the Votes on the question of a Prohibitory Liquor Law. These votes should be written or printed, "Prohibitory Liquor Law—Yes," or "Prohibitory Liquor Law—No," according as the elector may wish to vote.

Who to Vote.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.—1st. One year's residence in this State, and actual residence in the Town, or Ward where the vote is offered.

2d. Citizenship, or Declaration of Intention.

3d. Twenty-one years, or upwards, of age.

ELECTION.

The election up to one o'clock progressed without any particular disturbance, though the Liquor men were decidedly noisy, and the good "critter" was as free as water, to all who would vote "Prohibitory Liquor Law—No." Sufficient returns will probably be in by noon to-morrow, to determine the general result. Barstow's friends pretend to be sanguine of success, and are boasting, swaggering and offering to bet high that he will leave this county with from 1,500 to 2,000 majority, and that he will carry Waukesha county.

The question will soon be decided whether we are to have an honest administration of our State affairs for the next two years, or whether a horde of hungry and unprincipled political cormorants, who would suck out the life-blood of our prosperity, is to be let in upon us, to riot upon our State Treasury, and enrich themselves at the expense of the honest tax-payers of Wisconsin.

Those who have not yet voted, should do so forthwith. It is the duty of every man to exercise the right of suffrage.

La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The subscriptions to this Road are going forward finely. In the La Crosse Valley, during a short trip of three days only, by Messrs. Clinton and McFarlane, Thirty-five Thousand Dollars were added to the subscriptions, and they are sanguine in the belief that full three tenths of this amount may be realized in the Valley and adjoining settlements, by bestowing a little more time. The prospects of the early completion of this Road are most flattering.

☞ It is ominously reported about town that our neighbor of the Wisconsin, in his haste to deposit his vote before it rained, made a sad and unpardonable mistake, and voted for our Post Master for Governor, and instead of voting a split ticket on the Prohibitory Liquor Law question, voted in favor of the Atlanta Bank. It is feared that this mistake will haunt his mid-day dreams, so that he will take no peace the rest of his life, and probably shorten his days something less than fifteen years.

It is also reported that the Wisconsin printed a lot of split Liquor Law ballots—reading "for the Maine Law," on the outside, and against it on the inside. Cramer is a genius!

MARYLAND ELECTION.—Jacob Shower, Joshua Vansant, Henry May and William T. Hamilton, democrats, and John R. Franklin and A. R. Sollers, whigs, are elected to Congress.

The Democratic State ticket is elected, but the Whigs have both branches of the Legislature, which secures a Whig U. S. Senator and a State Treasurer.

☞ It is calculated that Gen. Cushing's letter, threatening to crush (by authority of President Pierce) all those democrats in Massachusetts who favor the coalition of Democrats and Free Soilers in that State, will result in lessening the hunker vote some ten to fifteen thousand! It ought to.

☞ Miss Lucy Stone lectured to full houses at Louisville, Ky., on the evenings of the 2d and 3d inst. The Kentuckians were highly pleased with her, and applauded her plain talk to their consciences right heartily.

Illegal Toll.

Five more suits against the Madison, Watertown and Milwaukee Plank Road Company for taking illegal toll, were tried before Albert Smith, yesterday, and in each case judgment was rendered against the Company for ten dollars penalty and costs of suit. Under the original charter, the Company claimed the right to charge so much for passing the gate, without reference to the distance traveled on the road. As this practice created great dissatisfaction, the charter was amended last winter, so as to require the Company to charge by the mile. Notwithstanding this they continued to charge as before, and therefore these suits were bro't. In one of the cases twenty cents were taken of a man for traveling less than one mile on the road.

The Company claims a vested right to charge as they do, under the original charter, and the question will probably be carried to the Supreme Court. One of the witnesses was told by the gate-keeper that the Company would continue to take toll in that manner, as long as the increased toll received by it amounted to more than the costs of the suits brought against it.

Foreign Items.

The Paris Patrie pronounces the reported recent Russian victories in the Caucusus, over Schamyl, totally unfounded.

Prince Gorchakoff, in reply to the demand of Omar Pasha that he must evacuate the Principalities within 15 days, said he had orders not to leave until the Sulton gave "the Czar the moral satisfaction he demands." Reckon he will get physical satisfaction first.

Thebes and Chalcis, in Greece, were—the first entirely and the latter partially—destroyed by the earthquake of the 29th Sept. last.

The current crop of Achaia and Patras, provinces of Greece, is reported a complete failure, and great suffering of the population is anticipated.

Bartholomew Szemere, Ex-Hungarian Minister and enemy of Kossuth, who was charged with having revealed the hiding-place of the Hungarian Regalia to the Austrians, says he was "neither able to render this service nor willing to do so," but that he is desirous to know and admire the man who did reveal it!

☞ James G. Birney, Liberty Party candidate for President in 1844, is spending the autumn and winter in Philadelphia. Mr. B. owns a respectable property at, and is a citizen of, Saginaw, Michigan. Owing to a partial paralytic stroke, he articulates indistinctly and has not a free use of his limbs, though he walks erect and presents a healthy and agreeable appearance. We gather these facts from the Saginaw (Mich.) Enterprise, which paper highly extols Mr. Birney as a citizen and a man.

HORSE THIEF COMING WEST.—The Syracuse Standard says that John Bunce, one of the most notorious horse thieves in New York, and who has just served out a term in the Penitentiary for that crime, is coming West. We hope he will come properly labelled, so that his profession may be determined at first sight.

☞ A young man, supposed to be suffering with the delirium tremens, on board the steamer Ocean on its trip from Buffalo to Detroit, on Thursday last, struck one of the hands a fierce blow with a billet of wood, and then jumped overboard into the Lake, and was drowned.

A RUM WAGER.—A few days since, two men in Troy, N. Y., drank rum on a wager. One managed to spill the most of his under the table, while the other, more honest, drank 37 glasses, and then died! Wonder if Mr. Coe will consider the injuries in this case "so remote" as to be "almost inappreciable"!

☞ It is said Congress is to be asked to appropriate from three to five millions of dollars for public buildings in Washington. Washington is a great spunge on the revenues of the country.

☞ The steamer E. K. Collins, which has been undergoing repairs at Chicago for several days past, is nearly ready for service again.

☞ The Massachusetts election comes off on Monday next, the 14th inst., which closes the election campaign throughout the Union for this year. After which comes Thanksgiving.

The Beaver Dam Republican speaks for 1,000 majority for the Democracy in Dodge county. The matter will soon be decided.

☞ Hon. Jared Perkins (late M. C.), of Winchester, is the Free Democratic candidate for Governor of New Hampshire. Hon. John H. White declined to run again.

NEBRASKA.—Johnson (said to be an Atchison man) is reported elected over Guthrie (a Benton man) by 129 votes to Guthrie's 59.

NEW MEXICO.—Padre Gallegos is elected delegate over Governor Lane, having 300 majority. Gov. Lane will contest the seat.

☞ President Pierce is said to be a tee-totaller now. Of course, then, he is a Maine Law man.

☞ Yesterday was the forty-second anniversary of the Battle of Tippecanoe.

The Tennessee Senate has passed a resolution prohibiting smoking in the Senate chamber during business hours.

☞ The Emperor of Russia has offered Rachel, the French tragedien, $120,000 for one year's performance in his imperial theatre.

The revenue duty on sugar for the last five years has amounted to $36,000,000.

Pattern Law-making and Printing.

MR. EDITOR: We are a great people here in Wisconsin—we are, and no mistake! We beat all creation and "the rest of mankind" in most things, and particularly in legislation and printing. Talk about the Eastern States and the Old World, and the arts, and all that—why, we are out of sight ahead of them! I speak by the record, Sir, and am not to be called a western braggadocio by any means. And if any one presumes to question what I say, I give him a specimen of our legislative wisdom, and unequalled accuracy in Public Printing, by a reference to Chapter 105 of the statutes of Wisconsin for 1853. Published by authority, at Madison, by Beriah Brown—to wit:

An Act to amend an Act providing for the organization of a Separate Supreme Court:

SEC. 1. That section four of chapter three hundred and ninety-five, of session laws of 1852, be and the same is hereby so amended, that two of the Justices of said court, shall constitute a quorum for the hearing and deciding of all causes, suits and proceedings at law or in equity, and transacting business in said court: Provided, however, In any suit or proceeding in which had of said question have acted as counsel or are otherwise disquatified, the same shall be heared and decided by the question has so disqualified.

SEC. 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED, July 12, 1853.

There, Sir, is not that enlightened legislation or printing for you? And who shall dare to grumble for the privilege of paying for the Record of our still-advancing progress in the art of printing, the science of legislation, and judicial reform? There is a Proviso for you, 'as is' a Proviso! You may prate about the Wilmot Proviso as long as you please, but I tell you our Supreme Court will hold under our own act that Wilmot 'didn't know nothing' about a real, constitutional, judicial, practical proviso, 'the best way he could fix it'!!

Yours, &c., SECTION 4, AS AMENDED.
BROWNHAVEN, Oct. 7, 1853.

Atlanta Bank Money.

EDITOR FREE DEMOCRAT:

The 29th of October I sold a load of wheat at the Blue Warehouse, and they offered me Atlanta Money, which I refused to take. The clerk said they had no other money. I asked him if that was all the money they paid out for wheat. He said yes; but afterward qualified it a little by saying "when they had no other." I then requested him again to give me other money, which he positively refused to do. I told him I should publish a statement of this affair. He said there had been two or three men sued for publishing statements about this Bank. "Yes," said I, "and Smith has withdrawn one suit and paid his own costs."

Farmers, there are men in Milwaukee who will buy our wheat and pay us money for it. Let us, then, sell to such, and such only, as will pay good money. They will do it, if we only insist upon it. The only course for farmers to pursue is to make a bargain, when they sell, not to take this Atlanta trash. For we, who live in the country, sixty or seventy miles distant, cannot institute a suit to recover our rights without being at much trouble and expense. And this the wheat-buyers know, and take advantage of, consequently, the only course is to bargain for Wisconsin money, or other good paper.

Railroad Intelligence.

Canada West Railroad.—The first division is completed, and was opened from Niagara Falls to Hamilton on the 1st inst.

Port Huron & Grand Haven Railroad.—Messrs. Gzowski & Co. have taken the contract for building the Michigan Northern Railroad, which will unite Port Huron (opposite Sarnia) and Grand Haven (opposite Milwaukee on Lake Michigan,) a distance of 200 miles. The road is to be constructed on the same scale as the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.—N. Y. Trib., Nov. 4.

Insanity Attributed to Quinine.—The True Delta of New Orleans remarks the fact, that although no people are usually less liable to Insanity than the Irish, yet now scarcely a day passes that some Irishman is not sent to the Insane Asylum. We quote the rest:

"Physicians who are opposed to the use of quinine in yellow fever cases, give it as their opinion that this new development of a tendency to insanity is the result of a too general use of that subtle and deadly medicine. Public opinion attributes not a few of the many yellow fever deaths which have of late so terribly swelled our mortuary annals, to the unwise use of quinine; and if to the supposed death-dealing qualities of quinine, be added the production of deafness and blindness, and swollen limbs, and insanity! how great must be the responsibility of those who have so freely, in fifty-grain doses, administered it.

But the new outburst of insanity is not wholly confined to any one class of our population. Every nationality contributes its victims, upon whose brains the "written" troubles of quinine have been traced, for all of those who have recently become insane have but a short time since had their names recorded in physicians, books as among the lucky ones who were cured of yellow fever."

The Administration.

"He who dares these boots displace
Must meet Bombastes face to face."

A more impudent, incoherent and self-sufficient letter than the annexed one from Mr. Cushing has never issued from the Head of a Department in our country. Impudent in its attempt to dragoon the free citizens of Massachusetts into the views of the Cabinet. Who gave Mr. Cushing the right to rail at the Democrats of "several counties of Massachusetts," as a master would at his refractory subordinates? Incoherent in jumbling together the President's intervention in the local politics of Massachusetts with his views on State Rights generally, and his resolutions against "right-handed backslidings" (what, in the name of common-sense, does the man mean by sliding backwards in a right-handed manner?) "and left-handed defections," particularly. Self-sufficient, in that Mr. Cushing thinks that he and Mr. Pierce are armed with almighty power to crush whatever opinion they please. This is the first time that any President has looked upon it as a part of his duty to crush opinions. Prior to the accession of the enormously great Mr. Pierce, the incumbents of the Presidential chair considered themselves as the Executives of the laws of the Union, and not as crusaders against this or that opinion. Of what folly may not such a man as Mr. Pierce be guilty? Now, his object is to "crush out" the "dangerous element of abolitionism." To-morrow, it may be to "crush out" Catholicism, or Protestantism, or Mormonism, for he seems fully disposed to run a muck at something. The spirit displayed by Mr. Pierce is spiteful. Suppose Martin Van Buren had been elected in 1848, and have begun his Presidential career by telling the slaveholders he intended to "crush them out," that he was "up to the occasion," and that if they expected him to back out "they would find themselves greatly mistaken." He would have been thought to have taken leave of his senses. Van Buren would never have been guilty of such ridiculous swaggering.—"Whatever consequences may impend over" Mr. Pierce, we are assured that he "will set his face like flint." Will not Mr. Cushing relieve the agony of the public mind by saying what these awful consequences are? Has anybody menaced Mr. Pierce with assassination? If that gentleman can read Mr. Cushing's letter without blushing, his face is "hard" enough. It needs no setting like flint.

Mr. Pierce's sun has already passed its zenith. No President ever began his official career with fairer auspices. No one attacked him. All awaited his acts in a kindly and tolerant spirit. He might have been the President of the nation; he sunk to be the chief of a party; and now, finding still a lower deep, he is nothing but the tool of the planting clique, which is nothing but the rump of the democracy. What a fall is here! That the Chief Magistrate of the United States of America, the hope of the oppressed of all nations, should be conscious of no grander mission than catching runaway negroes for a little squad of planters, endeavoring to maintain slavery in Cuba, offering bribes of office and spoils to New York politicians to knuckle under to the demands of the Southern oligarchy, and rapping Massachusetts Democrats over the knuckles for having anything to do whatsoever with those who have not bowed the knee—this is indeed a national degradation.—Phila. Register.

Attorney General Cushing's Letter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31, 1853.

DEAR SIR:—I perceive that in several counties in Massachusetts, Coalition Senatorial tickets have been formed, of associated Democrats and Free Soilers. My judgment is that the Democrats who have participated in this, have done worse than to commit a fatal error. They have abandoned a principle which is fundamental. To support or vote for the Free Soilers of Massachusetts, is to give countenance and power to persons engaged avowedly in the persistent agitation of the Slavery question, and therefore hostile in the highest degree to the determined policy of the Administration. The President entertains immovable convictions on this point, as I have had occasion to express to you heretofore, and all of us whom he has called to the public service here, most heartily and zealously sustain his views on the subject as the only ones consistent with personal honor, the success of the Democratic party, the general welfare of the country, the integrity of the Constitution, or the permanency of the Union. If there be any purpose more fixed than another in the mind of the President and those with whom he is accustomed to consult, it is that the dangerous element of Abolitionism, under whatever guise or form it may present itself, shall be crushed out, so far as his administration is concerned. This the President declared in his Inaugural—this he has declared ever since, at all times, and in all places when he had occasion to speak on the subject.

While he does not assume to judge of the hearts of men who publicly avow sound principles, he only needs overt acts to show where they are, in order that his settled policy in the conduct of the affairs of the Government shall be equivocally manifest. Those who have apprehended halting or hesitation on the part of the President, in treading any path which truth and patriotism open to him, will find themselves greatly mistaken. He is up to this occasion. His policy was not hastily settled. While he occupies his present position it will never be departed from. The Constitutional rights of all the States of the Union are as dear to him as the rights of New Hampshire.

I have perceived from the outset that this great principle of the Constitutional rights of the States is fastened in his thoughts as the corner-stone of this Union. Depend upon it, no matter what consequences may impend over him, he will never allow it to be shaken by Abolitionists or factionists; but will set his face like flint as well against right-handed backslidings as against left-handed defections which may prejudice or embarrass the onward progress of the Republic. I remain very truly yours,

CALEB CUSHING.

HON. R. FROTHINGHAM, JR., Boston.

BLEEDING THE OFFICE HOLDERS.—The New York Herald says one of the first acts under Mr. Redfield, after he had assumed the charge of the Custom House in that city was to assess the under officers a certain per centage upon their salaries, to be used for electioneering purposes. The entire amount collected was $6,817,50.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A young German about twenty-two years of age, whose name was Frederick Butter, was killed at Mayville, in this county, on Saturday last, by the caving in of a bank of sand, in which he was at work. He and his father were engaged in drawing sand from a sand pit.—Dodge County Burr Oak.

HOGS.

The following is a comparison of the price current in this market and in New York, now, and at the corresponding date last year:

CINCINNATI.

	This year.	Last year.
Mess Pork	$14,50	$14,00
Bacon sides	7a7¼	7¼
do shoulders	6¾	6¾
Sugar-cured Hams	13	—
Green Hams, for delivery	7¼a7¾	7¼
*Barrel Lard	10½	9½
Green Sides	5½a5¾	6

*This is the nominal quotation for old Lard this season. Manufacturers, we understand, have it offered to them at 9½ cents for early delivery.

NEW YORK.

	This year.	Last year.
Mess Pork	$15,87a16,00	$17,00a17,50
Keg Lard	——	11¾a11⅞
Barrel Lard	11¾a12	——
Mess Beef	$12,00a12,50	$9,50a10,00

Last year, Hogs opened in this market at $5,00a5,25; this year, $5,00 may be regarded as the opening price. With reference to stocks, it is true that there is more Pork and Bacon in the market now than at this date last year, but of Lard, the stocks are very light, the foreign demand having been unusually heavy.

But, with reference to the present condition of the trade, and independent of antecedents or prospects, the facts exhibited do not vary materially from those presented at the beginning of last year's business. But when we connect them with the past, and what promises to be the future movements, the aspect changes, and the inducements to operate at high prices seem to be less encouraging than even last year.

The average prices realized for products since the close of the season were scarcely equal to $4,50 for Hogs, and to justify the same figure this year, we must either have no increase in the number of Hogs, or a greatly increased foreign and domestic demand for products.

With reference to the foreign demand, we are disposed to think too much importance has always been attached to it. The total amounts shipped from the United States during the nine months of the current calendar year were as follows, compared with the exports for the corresponding period last year:

	This year.	Last year.
Pork, bbls	111 038	58,504
Bacon, hhds	35,972	1,164
Lard, kegs	411.900	327,565

This reduced to pounds is as follows:

Pork and Bacon	50,265,200
Lard	16,476,000

This is the equal, of the former, to the product of about 275,000 Hogs, and of the latter, to 550,000 Hogs. The increase in the crop last year was about 500,000 head, and should it increase half that amount this year, the excess would be nearly equal to the entire foreign demand. A European war would not be likely to affect favorably the foreign consumption. High prices of Breadstuffs are not favorable to a heavy consumption of Provisions in England. In 1847, when the United Kingdom suffered from a deficiency of Breadstuffs, and high prices, the total imports of Bacon and Ham were only 143 tons, while in 1850—a year of low priced Breadstuffs—the imports were 17,540 tons.

The high price of Corn will not have that effect upon the crop of Hogs that it was generally supposed. It is true that Corn has been scarce and dear in all places that were convenient to market, but then the growing crop will prove about an average, both as regards quantity and quality; and this may be used, to a large extent, to feeding for a December and January market. Besides, we find that the largest crop of Hogs ever produced in the West, in proportion to the population, was in 1847-'48; although Corn had ruled high the previous summer, when immense quantities were shipped to Europe. —Cincinnati Price Current.

MURDER.—Professor Butler, who was shot by Ward in Louisville for punishing his son, is dead. What will be done with the murderer, we don't know. He has been refused bail, and this promises well.

Young Butler was an amiable man and a ripe scholar. Kentucky had no citizen more devoted to the cause of emancipation. For that, and in behalf of universal education, he labored with a noble devotion.—Cleveland Dem.

☞ A fruit dealer of New Orleans has brought a suit against the Post Master of that city for the unlawful detention of a letter, claiming damages to the amount of $560. The letter contained a bill of lading for a large lot of lemons from Vera Cruz, which spoiled at the wharf while the letter laid in the Post Office, the dealer applying for it repeatedly, but was told there was none for him.

HOG CONTRACTS.—The St Louis Republican, of the 4th, says: "To-day, a city packer reported the purchase of 1,000 hogs at $2,50 gross, on the Missouri river; and 500 do. at 3,90 net, delivered here.

Insurance on Property Destroyed at Green Bay.—Mr. C. J. Cary, Insurance Agent of this city, furnishes the Sentinel with the following, concerning the late fire at Green Bay:

The total loss is estimated at $100,000 and upwards. The following are all the insurances we can learn:

North Western, Oswego, N. Y.,	$4000 and upwards.
Etna, Hartford, Conn.,	1300
New-York City, N. Y.,	3000
American, Amsterdam, N. Y.,	1000
Farmers', Oneida Co., N. Y.,	1000
Rensselaer, Lansingburg, N. Y.,	700
N. American, Bausher Falls, N. Y.,	500
Total,	$11,500

Arrival of more Blooded Sheep.—The Lady Elgin, from Buffalo, landed at Higby's Pier, on Sunday night, one hundred and forty Spanish and French Bucks and Ewes, raised by Messrs. McAllister & White, of Gaines, Orleans Co., N. Y. This is the second flock brought to this State, by these gentlemen during the past year. Those landed on Sunday are some of the finest and most healthy looking sheep we have seen brought into this State. They left yesterday on the road to H. V. Prentiss' farm, one mile west of Jenkinsville, Waukesha County. These sheep are of the same breed as those exhibited at our late State Fair, where the Buck drew the highest prize, as did also a few of the fine-wooled ewes.—Sentinel.

Real Estate Sales.—Lots 8, 9 and 18, Block 125, 2d Ward, were sold by D. G. Power, yesterday, for $1200, and lots 9 and 14, Block 62, 4th Ward, for $2100.

Important Arrival.—Capt. Hawley's Dredge arrived here on Saturday last.

Schooner Windsor Wrecked.—The schooner Windsor, belonging to Chicago, went ashore several days ago, about 5 miles from Louis Island, near the entrance to Green Bay, and is probably a total wreck. She had on a cargo of provisions belonging to Mr. Jones, and destined for his mills. There was an insurance of $4,000 on the vessel, and $7,000 on the cargo.

"Hon. Wirt Lombard."

This distinguished young gentleman, who figured very conspicuously in this city, but a few months ago, in connection with a "Health Insurance Company," and who only escaped the Penitentiary on account of his youth and "respectable connections," has finally obtained a public position in the State of Connecticut. A letter, now before us, announces that he was recently tried at Danbury, Ct., and sentenced to the Penitentiary for two years, for selling a piece of lead, representing it to be gold, to one of the Bridgeport Banks.—Chicago Tribune.

This gentleman figured quite conspicuously in this city, something like a year ago, as an agent for a "Health Insurance Company." He advertised for men to engage in a business which would net them from $15 to $25 per day, and finally left town, forgetting to pay his advertising bill. We have for some time been expecting to hear that he had got himself in prison.

Schooner Meridian Ashore.—The Detroit Advertiser of Saturday morning says the schooner Meredian, from Chicago, went ashore on the head of Peach Island, on Wednesday night. She had on board a full load of wheat. The Steamer Ruby tried to get her off, but was unable to move her.—Yesterday the captain commenced taking out a part of the cargo to lighten her. It is not thought she has sustained much damage.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—New Orleans papers of Saturday last are received. The first mate and four of the crew of the British ship Liverpool had arrived at New Orleans. They report that the ship which was bound from Shields to New-York foundered at sea, carrying down with her Captain Williams, his wife, a lady passenger and thirteen of the crew.

☞ The State of Maine says: At Damariscotta and Newcastle there are nine new ships, either building or just launched, which range from 1,000 to 2,000 tons burthen each. At Thomaston there are seven ships building, which average 1,200 tons each. Richmond, Bath, and all the great ship building places, in fact, have far exceeded their ordinary business in this line. The amount of new tonnage built in Maine this year will be enormous.

A general review of the whole; also recommending a course of general reading, embracing especially the reformatory works of the Connection, compositions, essays, or sermons.

The committee further recommend the formation of ministerial associations for mutual improvement.

The Conference listened with deep interest to the report of the General Agent of the Book Concern. A committee was appointed to take the subject into consideration. The following is an extract from the report of that committee:

"Your committee on the Book Concern have taken the subject committed to them under consideration, and are fully persuaded that the interests of the Concern are intimately connected with the prosperity of our Connection, and that the present condition of the Concern requires the special and unanimous effort of all the annual Conferences, in order to place the establishment entirely above embarassment. And what ought to be done, can and must be done. We, therefore,

Resolve, 1st. That the Wisconsin Conference do hereby agree to assume the obligation to pay to the Parent Concern the whole sum due within our bounds, for books and periodicals, prior to the session of our next annual Conference.

2d. That this Conference will receive the bills due within its bounds and place them in the hands of the Preachers, to collect all that is possible and apply the same to liquidate the debt of the Concern.

3d. That the balance of the sum due shall be raised by donation or subscription.

4th. That one of our number be appointed Treasurer, to receive and pay over to the General Agent, at Syracuse, whatever may be paid to him, Quarterly.

5th. That the agreement on our part is binding only on the condition that the money received by the Agent be applied to the liquidation of the debt on the Concern, and that the same be reported quarterly.

6th. That at the end of the second quarter the Treasurer shall divide whatever is not collected equally among the several charges, according to their membership.

7th. That the members of this Conference will exert themselves to increase the circulation of our periodicals.

Report of Committee on Resolutions.

Your Committee, to whom was committed the work of preparing Resolutions on Reforms, report as follows:

Whereas, Intemperance, Slavery, War, Land Monopoly, Licentiousness, Avarice and Sabbath Breaking, are the strong-holds of the Devil, in which is being wrought the greatest amount of degradation, corruption and misery for the human family; and whereas, the Church of Christ is the Light of the World, the Salt of the Earth, the mission of which is to disseminate Spiritual light and exert a redeeming influence on the human race, not only by the holiness in heart and life of its members, but also by a plain, unequivocal, uncompromising declaration of its sentiments in regard to various moral questions and prevailing practices which have a bearing upon the physical, social and spiritual well-being of man; therefore,

On Temperance.

Resolved, 1st. That the traffic in intoxicating drink, as a beverage, is a crime which ranks with robbery and murder, and ought to be prevented by severe penalties on those that will not be otherwise restrained.

2d. That the present license laws of this State in legalizing as they do the sale of spirituous liquors, are subversive of the true design of law, are a strong bulwark of intemperance, a disgrace upon the statutes, and unworthy of a free people.

3d. That we hail with delight the present aspect of the Temperance movement, as seen in the enactment of the Maine Law by several States of the Union, as ominous of a brighter day and the commencement of a most important era in the Temperance Reformation; and we will stand pledged to use our best endeavors to secure the enactment of a law, by the Legislature of Wisconsin, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage.

4th. That the Free Democratic Convention, held at Madison, on the 8th of June last, to nominate candidates for State officers, by their strict regard for Temperance principles, as seen in their nominations, have merited for their party, the confidence of all Temperance men and true philanthropists.

On Slavery.

Resolved—1st. That, in our opinion, no tongue can tell, nor pen describe, nor artist paint, the iniquity and horrors of human chattelism; and in vain we seek for language fully to describe our deep and utter abhorrence of the God-dishonoring, soul-destroying, humanity-degrading, demon-imitating, soul-and-body-polluting, man-stealing, earth-cursing, heaven-daring, nation-defaming, light-hating, devil-pleasing, and hell-originating system of American Slavery.

2nd. That, with deep regret and sorrow, we witness, in various bodies of professing Christians in this land, a continual refusal to make non slaveholding a test of membership; and that such refusal deprives them, as churches, of all claims upon our confidence or fellowship, as christians.

3rd. That we look with perpetual hate upon the Fugitive Slave Law, as the most notoriously infamous of all enactments, and a disgrace to the nation—in its aim nullifying the law of Jehovah, and trampling down the plainest principles of the Gospel of Christ—and we regard it as a nullity, of no binding force; therefore, we will feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and shelter the outcast, whenever and wherever we find them, be they black or white, freeman or fugitive.

4th. That we pledge ourselves to one another, to God, and to the slave, that we will exert ourselves, if possible, more ardently than ever, both civilly and religiously, in behalf of the oppressed, and labor on and labor ever until their chains shall be rent asunder and the last slave shall walk a freeman in freedom's air.

On War.

Resolved, That the principles of Universal Brotherhood are Bible sentiments, dear to the Christian and important for the family of man; and that to resort to force of arms to resent real or supposed injuries is a brutal practice, worthy only of the dark ages, beneath the dignity of civilized man, and especially of the followers of the Prince of Peace.

On Sabbath Breaking.

Resolved—1st. That the fact of hundreds of our citizens being perpetually addicted to an open violation of the Sabbath, in teaming and otherwise, demands our strenuous efforts to secure the enactment and enforcement of such laws as shall prevent open Sabbath breaking by those that will not be otherwise restrained.

2nd, That the habit of Sunday visiting, as practiced by many, and even church members, is outright Sabbath breaking, for which those guilty should be disciplined, and the evil be discountenanced by all professing christians.

On Licentiousness.

Resolved—1st. That the degrading, polluting and soul-destroying sin of licentiousness, with all appearances of this evil, ought to be met with determined and continued opposition, in the pulpit and out of it, in Church and in State.

2d. That justice demands that the laws of our State should be so amended as to bring the implication of paramount guilt upon the seducer, instead of the seduced.

On Tobacco.

Resolved, That the common use of tobacco is properly ranked among habits of intemperance, is a violation of the rule of Scripture, which requires us to deny ourselves of all ungodliness and this world's lusts, and those that walk thus disorderly, and will not be reproved, merit our disapprobation.

On Avarice.

Resolved, That avarice is a sin to be classed with intemperance, slavery, war and licentiousness, and shall receive our most unqualified disapprobation.

On Land Reform.

Resolved, That land monopoly is a fruitful source of an aristocratic spirit and practice on the one hand, and of poverty, injustice, and misery on the other; and we will give our influence in favor of a law of Congress, preserving the public lands as a sacred trust to be given in limited quantities to the landless as their rightful possession."

These resolutions drew forth a spirited and interesting discussion. These sentiments were perfectly in harmony with the feelings and disposition of the entire Conference, and we hope the ensuing year will show that there is the strongest determination to act on the principles herein embodied. The resolution on tobacco was not adopted with as much spirit as some others, arising mainly from the fact that some of the brethren habitually use the offensive weed. All seemed fully convinced that reform on this question was necessary; but to condemn in theory and sustain in practice looked so much like inconsistency that some opposed the adoption of the resolution. But after some penitential confessions, the resolution was adopted. When will the sons and daughters of Zion cure themselves of this evil, by putting it away from them?

The Conference fully concurred in the amendments to the discipline as proposed by the General Conference: 1st, To strike out the prohibition of buying goods that have not paid duty; 2d, To strike out giving or taking unlawful interest; 3d, To add "lay delegation" among the items of the restrictive rules binding the power of the General Conference.

The committee appointed to fill the vacancy in the Presidency, should any occur prior to the next Annual Conference, are J. G. Merriam, Z. Baker, J. Amadon, A. Tift, H. Blennis.

The examining committee are H. McKee, L. Dickens, Z. Baker.

The next Conference will commence its session the 1st Wednesday in October next. The place of its sittings is not yet appointed, but is referred to a committee—H. McKee and J. G. Merriam.

A vote of thanks was tendered the citizens of Waupun for the kindness and hospitality manifested to the members and visitors of the Conference through its session.

The Conference was well attended, and proved a season of interest and profit. A large measure of divine influence was evidently realized by all. The brethren were truly one—bound together by the spirit of brotherly love. The visit of Br. L. C. Matlack was fully appreciated—his ministerial labors being attended with divine unction and effect. Our prospects are of an encouraging character. A large field of enterprise is opening on all sides. Our principles are deepening on the public mind. Many of our antagonists doubtless "hate us, but admire." Many fields of usefulness are now open, if we only had the men to occupy them. Where are the men that can afford to lose their reputation, their ease and popularity, and look poverty, toil, disease, or even death itself, in the face without fear, and zealously defend the truth of God? To such men we say, "come over and help us." Men that count not their lives dear unto themselves, and that esteem all things but as dung and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ. These are the men to roll on the [through God] cars of salvation and reform the world.—These are the men Wisconsin wants. Lord, thrust out such laborers into thy harvest!

G. PARSONS, Sec'y.

Clear the Track—The Train is coming!—Messrs. Mather & Johnson, of Palmyra, Marion county, Missouri, have telegraphed to us from Quincy, Illinois, announcing that on Saturday night, the 29th ult., "Thirteen negroes, men, women and children," left Marion county on the underground railroad, for parts unknown,—but supposed to be Canada. The dispatch contains a full discription of each passenger, and offers a reward that will enable us, when we earn it by catching the runaways, to "live like a gentleman," for at least one year. But as we have "other fish to fry," we want to let the job to some one who is competent for such business. No one need apply, however, who has served less than five years in the penitentiary, and is not ready to sacrifice the chastity of his sister or mother, or sell his soul for 'thirty pieces,' for we are confident that any person less devilish in nature and reckless as to consequences would not do. If there are any such hereabout we beg of them to apply for the job at once.—Chicago Tribune.

More Americans Imprisoned.—By the arrival of the steamship Black Warrior we have received advices from Havana to the 28th ult. According to the letters from the correspondent of the Herald, the Cuban planters had been thrown into a great state of excitement, in consequence of the groundless rumors relative to England's project to Africanize the island by abolishing slavery through the apprentice system.

Six more American seamen had been arrested and lodged inprison, on a charge of having been engaged on board the bark Jasper which the authorities allege was concerned in the slave trade. Hopes are entertained that after to-morrow, Secretary Marcy will have time to thoroughly investigate the case of these sailors, and if he should discover that they are really innocent of the crime, as is declared by their friends, promptly demand their release.

The mule crop in Kentucky this year, is estimated 33 per cent larger than usual.—Seven thousand five hundred have passed through one tollgate, this season on the road leading through the Cumberland Gap, destined for Georgia and South Carolina.

BOOTH'S INK FOR SCHOOLS.
East Saginaw, Mich., Aug. 29, 1853.
W. W. Booth:
Dear Sir:—I feel myself to be under weighty obligations to you for the dozen bottles of your Superior Black Ink. Several bottles are being used in my school, with most gratifying satisfaction. We hear not that common complaint of "poor pens," which we so often hear where an inferior or ordinary article of ink is used. 'Tis not its jetty, black, and shining smooth surface, alone, that gives it a superiority over other articles of the same name, but the readiness with which it always flows from the pen, and the property which effectually prevents metallic pens from corroding, under all ordinary circumstances. I can most cheerfully recommend its introduction into our primary schools as being precisely adapted to the use of children.
Respectfully Yours, &c.,

Holloway's Pills, an Infallible Remedy for Liver Complaints and the Diseases of the Stomach.—Copy of a letter from Mr. Henry Woodward, of Richmond, dated 25th May, 1851.—"To Professor Holloway—Dear Sir,—I suffered for many years from a most obstinate liver complaint, and although I tried various medicines prescribed by the most eminent medical men in different parts of the country, yet I could obtain no relief, and in despair I had recourse to your Pills, and it is with gratitude that I acknowledge they have been the means (under Divine Providence) of restoring me to a state of good health that I never could have anticipated." n2d1w

Professor Alex. C. Barry's Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound, for beautifying, improving and preserving the hair, curing cuts, bruises, burns, stings, rheumatism, and all irritations of the skin. A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement; but as the thousands who puschase, use, and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons.
Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 940,000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100,000.
This plain, unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than anything its inventor could say. If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy, for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases &c.—it would not, of course, be so universally in demand. The wealthy portion of the public would buy it any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits.
Sold in large bottles (price 25 cents,) at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot, 137 Broadway, and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!
HEALTH FOR THE STATES!!
Extraordinary Cure of loss of Health, Disordered Stomach, Indigestion and Determination of Blood to the Head.
To Professor Holloway,
Sir.—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by a loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.
I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
June 6th, 1852. (Signed) JOHN LLOYD.
Miraculous Cure of Dropsy.
To Professor Holloway,
Dear Sir I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.
(Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.
Infallible Cure of a Stomach Complaint with Indigestion and Violent Head-Aches.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.
To Professor Holloway,
Dear Sir—I am requested by a lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years, herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-Aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

Washington Irving.—There was a whole crowd of strangers to dinner, among whom was Washington Irving, a man of about sixty years, with large, beautiful eyes, a large well-formed nose, a countenance still handsome, in which youthful little dimples and smiles bear witness to a youthfully fresh and humorous disposition and soul. He must be a man of unusual happy temperament, and of the most excellent heart. He has surrounded himself with a number of nieces, (he says he cannot conceive of what use boys are in the world,) whom he makes happy, and who make him so by their affection. He says he has the peculiar faculty of liking everything he possesses, and everything which seeks his protection. He is an optimist, but not a conceited one. In the afternoon I begged him to allow me to take a profile likeness of him. The handsome old gentleman now became wide awake, loquacious and lively, and there was such vivacity in his smile, and so much fun in the very dimples of his countenance, that it is my own fault if I have not made one of the best and most characteristic portraits that has ever been taken of this universally beloved author. I am glad to have it to show to his friends and admirers in Sweden. Washington Irving invited me and my friends to his house for the following evening; but as we were obliged to return home that day, we could not accept his invitation, but engaged to pay him a visit in the morning.

I went in the forenoon with Mary Hamilton to Washington Irving's. His house or villa, which stands on the bank of the Hudson, resembles a peaceful idyll; thick masses of ivy clothe one portion of the white walls and garland the eaves. Fat cows feed in the meadow just before the window. Within the room seemed full of summer warmth, and had a peaceful and cheerful aspect. One felt that a cordial spirit, full of the sentiments of the soul, lived and worked there. Washington Irving, although possessed of the politeness of a man of the world, and with great natural good-nature, has, nevertheless, somewhat of that nervous shyness which so easily attaches itself to the author, and particularly to him who is possessed of delicacy of feeling and refinement. A portrait which hangs in Washington Irving's drawing-room, and which was painted many years ago, represents him as a remarkably handsome man, with dark hair and eyes—a head which might have belonged to a Spaniard. When young he must have been unusually handsome. He was engaged to a young lady of rare beauty and excellence; it would have been difficult to meet with a handsomer pair. But she died, and Washington Irving never again sought for another bride. He has been wise enough to content himself with the memory of a perfect love, and to live for literature, friendship, and nature. He is a wise man, but without wrinkles and gray hair.—Frederika Bremer.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

WELL, the BARNUM HUMBUG has been exhibited, and we are all satisfied with it, and we will have to be satisfied with whatever is presented before us; for what else is there in this cold, miserable world, but Humbugs? Lawyers are Humbugs, Doctors are Humbugs, Bankers are Humbugs, Merchants are Humbugs, Auctioneers would try to be Humbugs, and in fact every thing is a Humbug, with two exceptions, viz: Handsome Ladies and a group of small Children, are the only realities we have in this world. Now, I have no fault to find, nor do I care what any one says, for there is no friend so near and dear to you as yourself, and all you should wish of that friend is to do right. Now, I again call your attention to this STOCK OF DRY GOODS, amounting to about Ten Thousand Dollars, which I now offer to any one on 6, 12, or 18 months without any interest, at what they cost.—Real Estate security will be taken. To any one who wants to go into the Dry Goods Trade, here is an opportunity that seldom offers.
